

GOVERNOR (1985#1993 : BANGERTER) [446]

FIRST LADY'S SPEECHES, 1985#1992

0.4 cu. ft. and 1 reel microfilm

DESCRIPTION: This series consists of the speeches given by Colleen Bangerter, wife of Governor Norman H. Bangerter. As the Governor's wife, Colleen Bangerter served as an advocate of the administration and was a sought-after speaker by schools, clubs, and civic groups. She regularly spoke at dedications, conferences, and luncheons. Mrs. Bangerter served on a number of task forces to fight drug abuse, a topic which became a common theme in her speeches. She was also a proponent of strong families and volunteerism, other common topics in this series. Occasionally the speech text is accompanied by correspondence from the host group or a copy of the activity program.

ARRANGEMENT: The speeches are arranged alphabetically by the name of event at which the speech was given or by name of the group to whom she spoke.

RELATED RECORDS: Series 12409, FIRST LADY'S CORRESPONDENCE, contains Mrs. Bangerter's correspondence with many of these same groups and on the same topics. Series 22003, FIRST LADY'S SUBJECT FILES, contains additional background information on these groups and Mrs. Bangerter's participation.

PROCESSING NOTE: Following the Governor's mansion fire in December 1993, this series was transferred to the archives. The series was alphabetized and archivally processed by A.C. Cone in June of 1994 and microfilmed the same month.
